International Conference on Talent Ecosystem 2022

A New Frontier in The Global
Talent Landscape

Date: 22nd February 2022

Time: 12:00 to 22:00

Platform: Zoom

A key emerging talent strategy is the notion of a talent ecosystem, one in which everything is connected. The conference aims to create a dialogue platform among key stakeholders namely the institutions, individuals, and the industries on shared goals of skills mapping, collaboration, and intelligence.

We invite higher education institutions, government agencies, public sector, course providers, skill assessment agencies, industries, recruiters, thought leaders and job seekers to generate consensus, provide innovative solutions to build and redefine talent in post pandemic recovery initiatives.
