

TAOC-IG Anniversary

Transnational Anti Organized Crime-Intelligence Group celebrates 11th Anniversary with the theme

“11th Year of Vigilance and Value : A Growing Threat to National and International Security

Aberdeen Court, Quezon City, Philippines

Dr. Angelica Baylon served as Guest of Honor and Keynote Speaker during the 11th Anniversary of TAOC-IG, themed “11th Year of Vigilance and Value: A Growing Threat to National and International Security,” held in conjunction with the Cardinal 05-25 Graduation Day. Dr. Baylon also served as a resource speaker, presenting research on the escalating threat of transnational organized crime, emphasizing the imperative of vigilance, valor, and the critical role of international collaboration.

The event was organized by TAOC-IG, ably led by its respected Director General, Atty. Gen. Galma Tamidles Arcilla, who represents the Philippines at the United Nations General Assembly in New York annually.
